Originally from the Hudson Valley in New York but now based out of Knoxville, TN, 2019 IBC semi-finalists, and international touring group The Jonny Monster Band should not be missed! Jonny Monster's original mix of acoustic blues and hard dynamic electric guitar is like a runaway locomotive that steams into any venue. Having opened for greats like Johnny Winter, Lucky Peterson, and Booker T. Jones, Jonny Monster has also headlined his own shows down the Eastern Coast from Burlington, VT to Naples, FL, and is quickly building a following in Europe. As well as a self-titled record, and an exciting follow up "Bad Times Before" The Jonny Monster Band continues to captivate audiences with East Tennessee's own O'Neal Dover on bass and Kevin Redding on drums. Jonny Monster's high energy aggressive guitar style makes JMB a must-see live act.
